WILD ALASKA LIVE

KRATT BROTHERS HOST TRIO OF LIVE BROADCASTS

Chris and Martin Kratt, the Emmy-Award winning zoologists and brothers who have helped children explore the world of animals for almost two decades, will host public television's latest exciting foray into live nature television.

Over three nights, in partnership with the BBC, PBS turns the cameras on a natural spectacle that plays out across the vast Alaskan wilderness, where some of the world's most remarkable animals - bears, wolves, moose, orcas and eagles - gather by the thousands to take part in Alaska's summer feast, an event never before captured live on television.

The three-night live presentation also explores the challenges of preserving America's last frontier, as scientists, filmmakers, photographers and other experts gather to tell some of the planet's extraordinary wildlife stories.

SUMMER OF ADVENTURE

Public television's "Summer of Adventure" continues on Tuesdays and Wednesdays with more of The Story of China, The Big Pacific, The Great Yellowstone Thaw and three additional series for July:

- Nature's Great Race - July 12, 19, 26 Wednesday
- Rare - Creatures of the Photo Ark - July 18, 25 Tuesday
- Wild Alaska Live - July 23, 26 & 30

MUSCLE SHOALS TO MUSIC ROW LIVE!

THURSDAYS AT 10:00PM

As one singer/songwriter joked at the Alabama Music Hall of Fame induction ceremony a few years ago, you can't throw a stick in Muscle Shoals without hitting a guitar player. The Shoals area has become famous for its role in the music industry - especially after the hit documentary about it a few years ago.

This month, APT is proud to introduce Muscle Shoals to Music Row Live, a new music series produced in the Shoals by the Sam Phillips Music Corporation and featuring talented artists and songwriters from Music Row and around the world. The company has been producing a two-hour radio and webcast version of Muscle Shoals to Music Row Live for several years and airing it live on their radio stations in the Tennessee Valley and Southern Middle Tennessee. The new television show will give these performers a statewide audience in Alabama - and possibly in other states in the future.

Paleontologist examines ancient forest on ocean floor.

UNDERWATER FOREST

23 SUNDAY AT 6:00PM / 24 MONDAY AT 9:00PM

Drop below the waves of the Gulf of Mexico and back in time to an ancient cypress forest discovered 10 fathoms down on the seafloor. The prehistoric trees of The Underwater Forest date to an ice age 60,000 years ago, when sea levels were hundreds of feet lower. Follow the first scientists and camera crew to ever visit the site 15 miles from Alabama's coast and take a fascinating journey through the eons.

ALABAMA SCHOLAR'S BOWL

SATURDAYS AT 10:30AM BEGINNING JULY 8

High school teams from across the state compete for scholarship money in the new Saturday morning series Alabama Scholar's Bowl. Questions in science, technology, engineering, math and history are provided by National Academic Quiz Tournaments, and the competition is certified and operated by the Alabama Scholastic Competition Association (ASCA). Well-known television personality Mike Riatta hosts. Keep track and see how well you do against the best high school competitors in Alabama.

Where grown-ups keep growing

Since 2012, Alabama Public Television has partnered with PBS stations around the country to provide a resource for adults trying to make the most of their lives. The Next Avenue website is filled with stories in five major categories of interest:

- Health & Well-Being
- Money & Security
- Work & Purpose
- Living & Learning
- Caregiving

At Next Avenue, you'll discover tips about traveling overseas, treating injuries, finding good investments, or even writing songs. Learn something new every day at nextavenue.org

SUBMIT YOUR STORY

APT is creating an oral history of the Vietnam era to inform and educate future generations about the war and the lessons learned from it, and most importantly, to remember the people who were part of it.

Whatever your experience - as a veteran, a refugee, a protestor, or simply an American citizen growing up during this turbulent time - APT wants your story. You can also submit a written account.

For more information, visit aptv.org/Vietnam

KEN BURNS' CLASSICS

As we anxiously await the debut of Ken Burns' newest film, The Vietnam War, in September, we're offering viewers another chance to see Burns' earlier epics :

- The Civil War* - Sundays at 3:00pm
- Prohibition* - Mondays, July 3, 10 & 17 at 9:00pm
