October is the beginning of the PBS Fall Season – a month filled with premieres and new episodes of your favorite programs.

MASTERPIECE continues its new seasons of The Durrells in Corfu and Poldark on Sunday nights, adding a third great drama, Press beginning Oct. 6 at 9:00pm. David Suchet (Poirot) is part of a terrific ensemble cast.

On Monday nights, ANTIQUES ROADSHOW explores “The Gen X Years” and offers a new edition of “Junk in the Trunk.” On Tuesdays, Henry Louis Gates Jr. returns with a new season of FINDING YOUR ROOTS.

Look for a new adventure with NATURE every week this month, beginning with Octopus: Making Contact on Oct. 2. Professor of marine biology Dr. David Scheel and his daughter Laurel raise an octopus in a tank inside their home and witness abilities and behaviors he never thought possible. Other episodes this month take viewers to the Serengti Plains, the Okavango River and the Amazon jungle, introducing scientists who are making discoveries that flip our understanding of nature on its head.

The new mini-series WILD METROPOLIS explores the extraordinary ways wild animals are making themselves at home in the world’s cities on Wednesday nights at 9:00pm in October, and NOVA presents new programs on Wednesday nights as well. On Thursday nights, look for a new season of THE THIS OLD HOUSE HOUR beginning Oct. 3. On that same night, see that latest episode of APT’s arts series MONOGRAPH at 8:00pm and a new DISCOVERING ALABAMA, “Tuscaloosa City” at 8:30pm.

Retro Report

Mondays and Tuesdays at 8:00PM

In today’s 24-hour news cycle, with breaking headlines, all-news networks and online outlets constantly competing for attention, RETRO REPORT on PBS aims to widen the discussion, revealing the story behind the story, providing new insights into how today’s events have been shaped by the past. Hosted by journalist Celeste Headlee and artist Masud Olufani, each episode will explore four distinct stories, closing with “Now It All Makes Sense,” a special segment featuring the wit and wisdom of author and comedian Andy Borowitz. The eight-part series will air Mondays and Tuesdays in October.

Topics to be explored include how decades-old research on human behavior shows that social media’s addictive power is by design rather than chance; why half a million children still have dangerously high lead levels even though it was banned from gasoline and household products decades ago; how the sex education policies of today are informed by failures of programs created during the Clinton era; and why mandatory arbitration agreements enacted on Wall Street twenty years ago have negatively impacted today’s #MeToo movement.

Weiq RePack In Mobile

Scheduled for October 19

If you live in South Alabama and watch APT on WEIQ channel 42 using an antenna, you will need to rescan for channels on your television or digital converter box around the middle of October to continue receiving APT. Channel 42 is moving to a new frequency as part of a national reallocation of the airwaves (repack) by the FCC to make more room for wireless internet broadband services. We plan to move to the new channel on Saturday, October 19. We will notify viewers on-air, online and in social media if there is any delay.

To rescan, select “scan” or “autotune” from your TV or converter box control menu to start the process. You can usually find instructions by pressing the “set-up” or “menu” buttons on your remote control. Once your rescan is complete, your television will still identify WEIQ as channel 42. Rescanning requires no new equipment or services. If you watch TV through a cable or satellite service, your service provider will do it for you.

Visit www.aptv.org for more information on rescanning and WEIQ's move to the new channel. If you have problems, call APT at 1-800-239-5233 for help.
